

PowerShares Cleantech™ Portfolio Goes Global

CHICAGO – June 26, 2008 – Invesco PowerShares, a leading provider of exchange-traded funds (ETFs), announced today that the PowerShares Cleantech™ Portfolio (PZD) will be rebalancing to include a foreign security weighting.

As of June 27, 2008, the Cleantech Index™ will rebalance to allocate an approximate 45% weighting of components to companies domiciled outside the United States including Canada, Philippines, Singapore, China, Japan, India, France, Germany, Spain, Switzerland, Denmark, United Kingdom, Norway, Finland, Austria, Netherlands, Portugal, Hong Kong, Israel and Belgium.

The PowerShares Cleantech™ Portfolio (PZD) tracks the Cleantech Index™ (ticker: CTIUS), which is designed to track cleantech companies, from a broad range of industry sectors. “Cleantech businesses” are defined as those that provide knowledge-based products (or services) that add economic value by reducing cost and raising productivity and/or product performance, while reducing the consumption of resources and the negative impact on the environment and public health. The Cleantech Index™ focuses on companies which are leaders in the innovation and commercial deployment of cleantech products across a broad range of industries including, but not limited to, alternative energy, energy efficiency and transmission, air and water purification, advanced materials, eco-friendly agriculture, transportation, manufacturing efficiency, recycling and pollution prevention.
